

GD RULES AND REGULATIONS:

1. Dress in a presentable and formal manner.
2. Maintain professional conduct throughout the session.
3. Do not engage in vulgar behavior or use inappropriate language during the discussion or in the presence of the judges.
4. Maintain confident and positive body language throughout the discussion.
5. Follow the Judges' Instructions: The judges' instructions should be followed at all times to ensure an efficient and productive discussion.
6. Active Participation: Each member should actively participate in the discussion and share relevant thoughts and ideas.
7. Time Management: Discussions should be kept on topic and within the allotted time frame to ensure fairness to all participants.
8. Fact-Based: Members should base their arguments on facts and credible sources, avoiding rumors and misinformation.
9. Listening: Members should listen actively to each other and give their full attention to the speaker.
10. Respect: All members must show respect to each other, regardless of their opinions and viewpoints. Personal attacks, bullying, or hate speech will not be tolerated.
11. Open-Mindedness: Approach discussions with an open mind and be receptive to diverse viewpoints.
12. Constructive Criticism: Members should provide constructive criticism and feedback to each other, rather than simply criticizing or disagreeing.
13. Confidentiality: Discussions and any personal information shared within the group should be kept confidential unless permission is given.
14. Inclusivity: All members should feel included and valued in the discussion, regardless of their background or personal characteristics.
15. Fairness: The discussion should be conducted fairly and impartially, with equal opportunity for all members to share their thoughts.
16. Responsibility: Take responsibility for statements and actions made during the discussion.